NO. 51—POLITICS, GOVERNMENT, THE ELECTIONS — Fall 2008

To America on the Occasion of Another Presidential Election: Words of Hope and Warning . . . From Almighty God and our Godly Founders . . .

BY DALE CROWLEY JR.

"When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice;
but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn." —Proverbs 29:2

"Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord." —Psalm 33:12

"Righteousness exalted a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." —Proverbs 14:34

"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." —Psalm 9:17

In view of these truths from the Word of God, will we vote for the "lesser of two evils?" Will you and I be able to vote for unmistakably proven men and women of God, or must we vote for the "lesser of two evils?" Can you show me a place in Holy Scripture where God commands us to choose evil? . . . or lesser evil? Or that just a little evil isn't so bad? Here is how our founders advised us to choose our government and rulers:

GEORGE WASHINGTON "Religion [Christianity] and morality are indispensable supports." "Virtue, or morality is a necessary spring of popular government."

JOHN ADAMS "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious [Christian] people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

WILLIAM PENN "Men must be governed by God or they will be ruled by tyrants."

PATRICK HENRY "This great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians, not on religions but on the Gospel of Jesus Christ." "It is impossible that a nation of infidels or idolaters should be a nation of free men. It is when people forget God that tyrants forge their chains."

SAMUEL ADAMS "Neither the wisest constitution nor the wisest laws will secure the liberty and happiness of a people whose manners are corrupt."

JOHN JAY "Providence [God] has given to our people the choice of our rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation to select and prefer Christians for their rulers."

THOMAS JEFFERSON "God who gave us life gave us liberty . . . I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that His justice cannot sleep forever."

JAMES MADISON "Religion [Christianity] is the basis and foundation of government." "We have staked the future upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God."

JOSEPH STORY (Early Supreme Court Justice) "The real objective of the First Amendment was not to countenance, much less advance Mohammedanism, or Judaism, or infidelity . . . Christianity ought to receive encouragement by the state.

DAVID J. BREWER (1900s Supreme Court Justice) "This

Republic is classified among the Christian nations of the world. It was formally declared by the Supreme Court of the United States . . . 'this is a Christian nation'."

WILLIAM REHNQUIST (Supreme Court Chief Justice) "The wall of separation between church and state is a metaphor which has proved bad history, a metaphor which as proved useless as a guide to judging. It should be frankly and explicitly abandoned.

DEAR READER, please read again the words of Patrick Henry and Supreme Court Justices Joseph Story and David Brewer; then ask yourself the question: "Should anyone but a Christian minister ever be permitted to pray the opening prayer at the daily sessions of Congress? . . . the Congress where the laws that govern us are made?"

The answer is, "No, of course not."

But the wretched fact is that in recent years our ungodly rulers—ungodly Democrats and ungodly Republicans alike—have invited and welcomed Moslems, Hindus, Buddhists, and Talmudic Jews to "pray" their pagan prayers at the opening of the sessions where and when the laws that we live under are made! (That explains a lot, doesn't it? . . . Thank God, so far neither a Shinto priest nor a satanic Wiccan witch has prayed for our lawmakers.)

Dear Reader, is it any wonder that our nation has experienced such cataclysmic calamities and disasters in recent years? . . . as our lawmakers, supposedly sworn to uphold Constitutional and biblical law, invoke the blessing of Satan himself on our nation?

Now read the following about how this once great Christian nation, while welcoming pagans, snubbed, for 20 years, one of the greatest Christian writers and martyrs of the 20th century, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn.

ON POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT IN THE U.S. – 2008

In the White House . . . Sodomites Welcome; Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Unwelcome

BY DALE CROWLEY JR.

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn died this year in the Russia he loved. He lived in exile in the United States from 1974 to 1994. One of the darkest stains on over two centuries of U.S. history is that that great Christian anti-Communist, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, was never once to be an honored guest at our White House. Even Ronald Reagan, the great cold war victor, didn't extend an invitation to the Russian who helped him win that cold war.

Solzhenitsyn resided in the U.S. during the presidencies of Ford, Carter, Reagan, G.H.W. Bush, and Clinton—all self-professed anti-Communist religious men, but not one of them invited the most famous anti-Communist Russian of history to be their honored guest. How could this be? Why?

Solzhenitsyn was no saint (but not many White House guests are). He was a Communist first; and he made other mistakes. But he became a Christian and forgiven sinner while a Gulag prisoner.

But back to the question. Why was Solzhenitsyn never invited as an honored guest of even one of five presidents?

Why? Well, there is a good answer to that question: "For fear of the Jews." (John 7:13, 19:38, and 20:19) Yes, from the powerful Communist-sympathizing, outright Christ-hating Jews, to the "conservative" Christian Jews (neocons), not one of them would approve a White House invitation to Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn.

MARY CROWLEY'S VIEW FROM CAPITOL HILL

"... blessed art thou among women." Luke 2:28

The angel Gabriel spoke these words to Mary, the mother of Jesus, the Son of God. She was favored of God and chosen to fulfill God's purpose to provide a Savior for the world.

Her faithful and devoted faith to accomplish God's will lives on as a living example to the women of the world.

Today the media through TV, books, movies and magazines present women in such a different role. "What is best for me" is their creed.

My heart aches at the thought that many women of today may miss the blessing of giving of themselves to God to fulfill His purpose in their lives and in the lives of those around them.

There are many women who have blessed my life by their faith and example of giving. They thought of others before themselves. In my eyes these are . . . blessed among women. I bless them today.

Blessed is my mother who faithfully took me to Wisconsin Avenue Baptist Church where I was taught by many good teachers and found Christ as my personal Savior.

Blessed is Missionary Helen Pietsch who taught me the joy of hospitality and quiet submission.

Blessed is Elizabeth Ann Richters, my sister in Christ, who showed me friendship, loyalty and devotion.

Blessed is Marguerite Crowley who showed me by her daily example how to be a contented pastor's wife.

Blessed is Ruth Crowley who by her example of faithful caring of her husband, Dale, kept the "Right Start For The Day" on the air.

Oh yes, I could go on and on. But I cannot forget the senior citizens. God has brought many "blesseds" among our senior citizens into my life. These women come from various backgrounds. They have retired from their jobs, but they are certainly not retired from serving their Lord. They may have health problems and maybe even financial problems but their faith continues to sustain them. They may be lonely but they have found solace in giving to God's work and to sharing their love and time with others.

Blessed is Bertha, Daphne, Esther, Violet, Hattie, Dulcie, Margaret, Floy, Marg, and many more, who have showed me that age or illness does not matter. That even though one's life has changed and might be limited in

I am sure that as you look back in your own life you will remember women who have blessed you. If it is possible tell them that they are blessed. If they have gone on to their reward tell someone else how they have blessed you. Let their acts live on through you. Be a Blessed one and bless others. ♡

Prediction & Commentary . . .

PREDICTION

In May, 2009, there will be a boomlet of births of babies to unwed teenage girls . . . babies conceived and born out of wedlock, due to the stimulating and exciting example given us by Levi and Bristol, which was followed by widespread public approval in August 2008.

There will also be a boomlet of weddings of these teenagers, scheduled only a few weeks or months before the anticipated births.

COMMENTARY

Things certainly are not what they used to be when we old-timers were teenagers. In the first place, such things were hardly mentioned in conversation, much less on the front page. In the second place, someone, or ones, including parents, most certainly would be saying, "It's wrong, so you unwed teenagers stop it."

QUESTION

Are we better off . . . a better civilization . . . now than then?

Should "The King's Business" Include the Business of Selling Books?

BY DALE CROWLEY JR.

Well, I don't know why not.

I am certain that if the New Testament preachers and writers possessed the capacity for spreading "the way, the truth, and the life" by means of desktop publishing, printing presses, and mail, they would have done so.

The main reason that our "King's Business Ministries" has not gotten in to the Christian bookselling business is that there are enough such noble enterprises already, all the way from Amazon.com to the lowliest printer, publisher, and distributor... just no need for another.

But we believe that the time has come for us to embark upon a unique bookselling/book distributing enterprise. In order to keep it small and manageable, we will limit this venture to what we will call THE WORLD'S MOST UNUSUAL BOOKS.

Among "the world's most unusual books" are those that deal with unpopular, unpleasant topics, those that address extremely controversial—even explosive—topics, those that are disdained and shunned, and those, in general, that are contrary to accepted dogma ... if, that is, the accepted dogma are in error.

So without further ado, here is our very first list of THE WORLD'S MOST UNUSUAL BOOKS that are available now from THE WORLD'S MOST UNUSUAL ADDRESS, P.O. Box One, Washington, D.C., Attention: Mary Crowley.

From Oklahoma to the Nation's Capital . . . My Miraculous Journey* by Dale Crowley—$12

A rags to spiritual riches story of a preacher who was under attack and near death many times, only to recover to bless and inspire multitudes, lead many to Christ, and influence a broken world for God and for good.

Heart Blessings* Compiled by Dale Crowley—$12

A collection of 1,000 gems of poetry and prose that he used on over 40,000 broadcasts of the "Right Start for the Day" radio program on Washington, D.C. radio stations.

On the Wrong Side of Just about Everything, but Right about It All* by Dale Crowley Jr.—$12

"Poignant Memoirs and Insightful Bible Studies" (Michael Collins Piper) Incontrovertible Biblical proof of the Wednesday crucifixion and burial of our Lord, of the danger of Scofield's heresies, that God's people are left behind, not the wicked...and many others.

History's Wildest Guess* by Dale Crowley Jr. —$10

Many reasons why the notion that our universe and life on earth evolved is the wildest guess ever hatched by the mind of man.

The Strange Col. Scofield and His Incredible Book* by Joseph Canfield —$20

How an unspiritual, immoral man wrote a Bible commentary that has deceived millions with his heresies, and caused Christian America to be subservient to anti-Christian Israel and Judaism.

The High Priests of War* by Michael Collins Piper—$12

How the neocons . . . all identified . . . beguiled Dubya Bush to destroy Iraq.

The Judas Goats* by Michael Collins Piper—$12

The definition of "Judas Goats," the identity of 100 of them, and how they pretend to be American patriots, but are in reality patriots for Israel. ("They know who signs their paychecks," Dale Crowley Jr.)

Forcing God's Hand* by Grace Halsell—$12

How evangelical Christian "leaders" have misled millions about Israel. (Dale Crowley Jr. quoted on five pages)

Theft of a Nation* by William W. Baker—$10

How Eastern European Ashkenazi (non-Semitic) Jews stole the homes, the farms, and other possessions from the Palestinian people, who had lived in Palestine for centuries.

FOR THANKSGIVING LET'S SAY "THANKS" TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS, "GIVING" THEM THESE UNUSUAL, HELPFUL BOOKS. GOD GAVE US HIS "UNSPEAKABLE GIFT"; LET'S GIVE THESE UNUSUAL BOOKS TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS FOR CHRISTMAS. GIVE GOD THANKS FOR THESE AUTHORS; THEN GIVE THEIR BOOKS TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS.

FIVE GREAT CHURCH FOUNDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS

BY DALE CROWLEY JR.

Anniversary celebrations of the establishment of church congregations are times of precious memories, and of giving glory to God for His great love, grace, and power.

Mary and I have joined in several such celebrations in years gone by, and look forward to another in November.

Thirty years ago, in 1978, we helped celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Metropolitan Baptist Church on Capitol Hill, my home church for many years as a boy and young man, and where we were married in 1950. (Members of the founding congregation had already been meeting together for ten years, from 1868.)

In 2006 I was the oldest living former pastor of the Berea Baptist Church in Elizabeth City, North Carolina to be present for the 150th anniversary celebration of its founding in 1856. I was pastor of that great church in 1950 and 1951 before we went to Japan.

Just this spring we rejoiced together with our fellow Believers Baptist Church members (Leesburg, Virginia) at our 23rd anniversary celebration. This is the church founded under the leadership of our son-in-law, Pastor Terry Overstreet.

Then, only a few months later, on Sunday, August 17, we rejoiced together with the members of the Mt. Holly Baptist Church of Remington, Virginia, who were celebrating their 175th founding anniversary—1833-2008! I was privileged to minister at this great church in various ways in 1952, 1957, and 1963. Mt. Holly had an important part in the success of our evangelism and church planting foreign missions outreach in Japan, through prayer and financial support. God bless Mt. Holly Baptist Church.

Now there's one more glorious anniversary celebration this year ... the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Arakawaoki Church in Arakawaoki, Ibaraki Prefecture, Japan, in 1958. I was only 30 and Mary 27, but God used us in a mighty way to see a harvest of souls saved (continuing till this day), and established in one of the great true-to-the Bible, missionary outreach churches of Japan. I don't think we'll be able to make the trip and rejoice together this time, but let all of us Capitol Hill Voice readers give glory to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, for this and all these church beginnings.

Now, to close this report on this very important New Testament sound doctrine—the establishment of churches—we must not forget those many new churches in northeast Cambodia, where there was not one 15 years ago.

God has gifted and empowered our son, J.D. Crowley—in the midst of linguistic research and Bible translation ground-work—to lead multitudes to salvation in Christ, then to establish them in scores of churches in the faraway Ratanakiri Province of Cambodia.

So dear reader, let us be faithful and generous, and let us continue to work together in THE KING'S BUSINESS. †

FIRST CORINTHIANS 15:58: YOU KNOW THAT YOUR LABOR IS NOT IN VAIN IN THE LORD.

DEAR "Capitol Hill Voice" READER & "King's Business" RADIO LISTENER, following my article above about these happy and victorious occasions that we have experienced in the work of our Lord, please read this, an urgent, special message, concerning our growing need for prayer and financial support.

Yes, I am still busy in the business of the King, so as a successful "spiritual businessman" I have always endeavored to be a good manager and good steward of the resources our Lord has entrusted to me. And those resources include your generous, faithful contributions through the years.

Beginning with pastoral work in North Carolina, continuing with missionary evangelism and church planting in Japan, building a great Christian school in Hawaii, now carrying on the radio ministry my father began in Washington, Maryland and Virginia nearly 70 years ago, God has blessed me with good health and many spiritual victories and accomplishments.

So now I come to you boldly and sincerely, asking that you continue your support for these ministries.

As a good steward of what you entrust to these God-given ministries, I promise to keep on investing your donations wisely, so that you will continue to be a partner with me, and a good investor with me in the work of His eternal Kingdom, "laying up treasures in heaven."

I suggest especially and specifically that you include "The King's Business Ministries" in your WILL, TRUST, or LIVING TRUST, so that what God has blessed you with will continue to be used faithfully and wisely in His service in the harvest field of this needy world, as our Lord Jesus Christ commanded us to do, until He comes again.

Please pray about it, then do what He leads you to do. †

SALVATION TRUTH

Jesus: "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

But they did approve Ronald Reagan's and G.H.W. Bush's White House red carpet to be rolled out for the sodomites. (Bush 43 must be commended for refusing them that honor.)

"Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."

(In 2000, on "King's Business" radio):

Looking out over the political landscape in 2000, it is clear that the White House will be more beautiful with only one Bush. That is to say, "one Bush is enough." Well, let's be even more clear. Our beloved country is better off with only one New World Order, Skull and Bones, Rockefeller Republican Yalie. (This prophetic insight eight years ago has been proven to be 100 percent correct.)

I can see only one positive influence Bush 43 had on our country in eight years . . . his appointment of two good Supreme Court justices. Otherwise he succeeded only in wrecking the Republican Party, wrecking our wholesome image among the nations of the world, and wrecking the economy with his profligate spending, wasting our resources in the Middle East, and refusal to use his veto pen to stop the growth of government. It will take many years to recover from this eight-year disaster.

If James Madison, Alexander Hamilton and John Jay could have looked down the corridors of future time, and seen what tyranny their cherished federal government was to become, they never would have written their "Federalist Papers."

I like how the late Sam Francis characterized our two major political parties. He said, "The Democratic Party is the Evil Party; the Republican Party is the Stupid Party."

Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, in their most passionate imaginations, and in their wildest dreams, never saw the fulfillment of their socialist communist system as we have seen right here in our own United States of America.

END, PROPHETIC INSIGHTS BY DALE CROWLEY JR.

Greetings and Best Wishes From Dale Jr. & Mary Crowley

During this season of thanksgiving, giving, and receiving, let us rejoice for God's great gift of His Son for our salvation. • The prophets predicted it: "Unto us a son is given." • The blessed virgin Mary confirmed it: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior." • The angel announced it: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior which is Christ the Lord." • John the Baptist proclaimed it: "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." • Jesus Himself affirmed it:

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son." • Jesus' disciples preached it: "Neither is there salvation in any other." • The Apostle Paul expounded it: "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift."

(The scriptures cited above are Isaiah 9:6, Luke 1:46-47, Luke 2:11, John 1:29, John 3:16, Acts 4:12, II Corinthians 8:9, and II Corinthians 9:15.)

Dear Reader, please consider and pray about a special year-end contribution to these ministries.
