A Priceless Expression of Gratitude
Received in 2008
Exactly Fifty Years after the 1958 Blessings

Feb. 11, 2008

Beloved Brother Dale Crowley,

Thank you very much indeed for your very kind letter and precious informations and materials. We had the pleasure of having fellowship with Terry and Sharon. That reminds me vividly especially of the first time that I met you beside the round tent where you used to live with your family in Arakawagi.

I cannot forget to have learned from you two important Biblical teachings: it is sin to bow down to idols and for Christians to marry non-Christians. That was a great impact on me in my lifetime.

How encouraging it is for me to find that you are fighting in earnest in the States for the Lord's glory.

We pray that the Lord may bless you and your family abundantly.

Sincerely in Him, Makoto Noguchi
Yoko Noguchi

Dr. Makoto Noguchi, a few years younger than I, is a gentleman and a scholar, a brilliant intellect, a college professor and a pastor. He encouraged and assisted me to enroll in the world famous Waseda University Graduate School in Tokyo, Japanese Language Studies, leading to the Master of Science degree in Applied Linguistics (Georgetown University). Miraculously, God brought Pastor Noguchi into our lives when we were living in a tent, with our four children in Ibaraki Prefecture, during the construction of our home.

Missions Trip and Pilgrimage to Japan

In January, 2008, Sharon and I had the privilege of representing the Crowleys and King's Business Ministries at the ordination of Pastor Suzuki, the new pastor of the Arakawaoki Church. We were also able to fellowship with and minister to the family of Pastor Tanaka, who pastored there faithfully for 37 years, and who went to be with the Lord in 2007.

We had a wonderful time staying at the Kuroda's home and enjoyed his entire family for two weeks. (He is part of a family led to the Lord at the Arakawaoki Church in the early 60s.) We spent New Year's Day in Japan and observed how Japanese Christians celebrate this big day. The ladies dress in Kimonos, there are church services, family reunions, special food, and New Year's cards instead of our traditional Christmas cards.

I would like to share a few of my observations while there:

1) The Japanese Christians are very grateful that America sent missionaries after the war to bring them the Gospel. (We experienced first hand that the Crowleys are loved in Japan and that Dale Crowley's efforts in winning Japanese to Christ are legendary.) 2) The churches in Japan are overall very small. We saw three churches which have only ten converts each after decades of ministry. We saw one church that has 400 (a contemporary-style church in a larger, metropolitan city), and then the church the Crowleys started, Arakawaoki Church, is running around 75 folks--very successful by Japanese standards. 3) Christians in Japan plan their social lives around the life of the church because there is very little support for their faith in the surrounding culture and community. They are very serious about their faith because Christians are a very small minority and it is not easy to be a Christian in Japan. 4) The special music at the Arakawaoki Church is beautiful. Their choir has a reputation across Japan for producing quality classic Christian music. 5) The Arakawaoki Church makes training men a priority, and has a reputation as a "sending" church because of the many missionaries sent out around the world over the past 50 years.

Among the many blessings experienced during this trip was the opportunity to ride the Bullet Train (Shinkansen) to Misawa, where Sharon was born, and to continue further north to Noheji where she experienced her first memories of life. (This was the pilgrimage part.)

Thank you for your continued prayers and support for King's Business Ministries. We will be encouraging Brother Dale and Mary to write their memoirs of Japan for their next book. It would definitely be a good read.

Blessings, Terry Overstreet

IN MEMORY
AND IN HONOR

Pastor Yasuo Tanaka
1938-2007

He was one of Japan's great post-war pastors and evangelists. We praise God that we can say, to His glory and honor, that we met Yasuo Tanaka in 1960, witnessed of salvation in Christ to him, began teaching him, and then, ten years later looked on from Hawaii with gratitude as he became pastor of the Arakawaoki Church in 1971. He continued as the Spirit-filled pastor of that church 37 years until his home-going last year.

Under his faithful and sacrificial pastorate the lost were saved, the church grew, the church sent out and supported Japanese language missionaries to Hawaii, Brazil, and mainland U.S.A. The Arakawaoki Church, under his leadership, even contributed generously to the establishment of a Christian school in Hawaii.

As a boy, Pastor Tanaka lived in Manchuria, where his father served Imperial Japan in the occupation of that land. As a young man back in Japan after the war, he joined a Communist-oriented collectivist agricultural project.

Tribute must be paid to Brother and Sister B.J. Richters who, after we left Japan, took that new, young 20-year-old Christian in from the commune, ministered to him and his wife-to-be Mitsuko, taught and trained them in the work of the pastorate, and put them on the road to exemplary and renowned spiritual labor and fruitbearing in the harvestfields of Japan, Brazil, and the U.S.A., and to building one of the greatest churches in post-war Japan.

The Tanaka's first child is already in heaven. Please pray for those who remain--wife Mitsuko, and two fine sons and two wonderful daughters and their families, and for the church he pastored and built so faithfully and sacrificially.

PROPHETIC! My letter to President Bush when he took office in January 2001. How did he do?

URGINGS, PLEADINGS, EXHORTATIONS, APPEALS, AND ENCOURAGEMENTS

TO THE 43RD PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

GEORGE W. BUSH

AND TO THE NEW 107TH CONGRESS

by Dale Crowley Jr.

Broadcast on "The King's Business" Radio Program

Inauguration Day, January 20, 2001

WFAK Radio 1220

Editors Note: I wish this message to President Bush could have been printed and mailed to him and 535 Members of Congress BEFORE he violated several of my pleadings—those with respect to Indianapolis, Israel, and Iraq. But one of my King's Business slogans is relevant: "You'll hear it first, and perhaps only, on the King's Business radio program, and sometimes you'll hear it before it happens." The following was broadcast boldly on the day of Mr. Bush's inauguration. Dear reader, should this pertinent moral message be sent to every Member of Congress? If you think so, and want to do so, I need your help. It will cost $500.00.

It was my father's custom for many years to broadcast and print a special message to every new President and to every new Congress.

In the spirit of his radio ministry, and believing it to be very especially needful for this new President and Congress, I send out this message of exhortation this morning. While the following exhortations are directed to President Bush, let us hope and pray that every member of the Senate and House of Representatives will make the application to themselves and to their legislative duties.

First, sincere congratulations on your election to this high office. As the Bible enjoins us citizens, we will pray for you. And so long as you use your God-given authority to reward doers of good and punish doers of evil, we will give you our loyalty, support, and respect.

PLEASE PUT A STOP IMMEDIATELY TO THE GOVERNMENT HARASSMENT AND PERSECUTION OF THE INDIANAPOLIS BAPTIST TEMPLE IN INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

PLEASE FULFILL SECOND PRESIDENT JOHN ADAMS' PRAYER TO GOD, NOW ENGRAVED ON A MANTEL IN THE WHITE HOUSE STATE DINING ROOM: "I PRAY GOD TO BESTOW THE BEST OF BLESSINGS ON THIS HOUSE AND ALL THAT SHALL HEREAFTER INHABIT IT. MAY NONE BUT HONEST AND WISE MEN EVER RULE UNDER THIS ROOF."

Please practice and maintain a wholesome, biblical family life.

Please set an example to the nation of loving, faithful family relationships.

Please do not use the White House—our house—for fornication and other kinds of sexual immorality.

Please do not use the White House as a means of money making, deal making, influence peddling and buying, extortion, and bribery.

Please, do not besmirch the White House (as Ronald Reagan and your father did) to honor the sodomites and their sodomy, which God calls abomination in His holy word.

Please make null and void all ungodly, immoral, unpatriotic, unamerican "Executive Orders" promulgated by your predecessor.

Please do not bypass Congress on matters and laws in which Congress should participate.

Please do not take our country into wars, and risk the lives of our young men and women.

Please do not be unduly influenced by foreign powers, such as Israel, which always covet the dollars and lives of Americans to advance their own interests.

Please do not succumb to the pressures of Israel for fear of losing the money and votes of American Jews.

Please do not embark on foreign adventures and wars as a means to divert attention from, and even cover up your own wrongdoings.

Please put America first, and refrain from "New World Order" talk and politics.

Please use your power and influence in every possible way to reverse the Talmudization of American Christian law. Substitution of the LAW OF GOD for the traditions of men is poisoning our Congress, our courts, judges, lawyers, juries, and law schools. Our Lord Jesus Christ said, "You have made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition." (Matthew 15:6) Talmudic traditions have nearly destroyed America, as they have other traditions, cultures, and nations of history. (Recent example of the application of Talmudic law: "President Clinton was not guilty of perjury, only giving false testimony.")

Please abandon your programs to improve our schools and students with public funds (our taxpayer dollars) and government programs. They will fail, just as your father's GOALS 2000 educational program was a total failure—not one goal of the eight was achieved, and billions of dollars were wasted.

PLEASE TELL THE TRUTH.

PLEASE KEEP YOUR PROMISES.

Washington Times, January 21, 2001

The following was signed by President George W. Bush yesterday:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, A PROCLAMATION:

Nearly 200 years ago, on March 4, 1801, our young Nation celebrated an important milestone in its history, the first transfer of power between political parties, as Thomas Jefferson took the oath of office as President. On this bicentennial of that event, we pause to remember and give thanks to Almighty God for our unbroken heritage of democracy, the peaceful transition of power, and the perseverance of our Government through the challenges of war and peace, want and prosperity, discord and harmony.

President Jefferson also wrote, "The God who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time" and asked, "Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are of God?" Indeed, it is appropriate to mark this occasion by remembering the words of President Jefferson and the examples of Americans of the past and today who in times of both joy and need turn to Almighty God in prayer. Times of plenty, like times of crisis, are tests of American character. Today, I seek God's guidance and His blessings on our land and all our people. Knowing that I cannot succeed in this task without the favor of God and the prayers of the people, I ask all Americans to join with me in prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United States of America, by the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim January 21, 2001, a National Day of Prayer and Thanksgiving and call upon the citizens of our Nation to gather together in homes and places of worship to pray alone and together and offer thanksgiving to God for all the blessings of this great and good land. On this day, I call upon Americans to recall all that unites us. Let us become a nation rich not only in material wealth but in ideals — rich in justice and compassion and family love and moral courage. I ask Americans to bow our heads in humility before our Heavenly Father, a God who calls us not to judge our neighbors, but to love them, to ask His guidance upon our Nation and its leaders in every level of government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twentieth day of January, in the year of our Lord two thousand one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and twenty-fifth.

FAREWELL, AT LAST, TO THE CHIEF

By Nat Henthoff

Washington Times, January 22, 2001

Mr. Clinton has bamboozled much of the populace and the great majority of the working press that has covered his presidency. Moreover, during the impeachment process, Mr. Clinton succeeded in lowering the reputation for scholarship and intellectual honesty of the hordes of historians, law professors and "expert" lawyers who—in ads and in testimony before Congress—insisted that the president had not committed impeachable offenses. Some of the same "authorities" have excoriated the Supreme Court for its decision in Bush Vs. Gore.

LIBERAL BOB HERBERT IN LIBERAL NEW YORK TIMES ON LIBERAL BILL CLINTON

Some of Mr. Clinton's closest associates and supporters are acknowledging what his enemies have argued for years—the man is so thoroughly corrupt it's frightening.

Editor's Note: You heard it first on The King's Business several years ago. I said he was a madman, that sin had made crazy.

Bill Clinton has been a disaster for the Democratic Party. Send him packing.

The Clintons are a terminally unethical and vulgar couple, and they've betrayed everyone who has ever believed in them.

ABORTION RIGHTS GROUP LOSES APPEAL ON RULE BOOK

By Frank J. Murray

Washington Times, February 27, 2001

A national abortion rights organization yesterday lost its Supreme Court appeal to overturn a voluminous rule book South Carolina imposes on abortion clinics.

The Center for Reproductive Law and Policy in New York (CRLP), representing four doctors and two abortion clinics, claimed that South Carolina's medical, safety and sanitation rules are pointless and unconstitutionally interfere with abortion access by raising its cost.

State officials say the code reflects national standards.

"These reasonable health and safety regulations will continue to stand. South Carolina should be run by South Carolinians, not federal bureaucrats or federal courts," South Carolina Attorney General Charles Condon said.

The high court's refusal to hear the case, issued without comment, does not create new law but leaves standing the 27-page rule book imposed in 1995 on abortion facilities.

Tribute to Mother

It was 36 years ago this month—April 12, 1972—that our Lord decided to call Mother home to her eternal rest from her labors and sufferings on this earth. And this is the 36th annual tribute that I have paid to her, either in print, on the radio, or both.

As I recite this brief summation of the wonderful qualities of her life and motherhood, that she lived so generously on behalf of me and my brother Bob, I know that I will remind many readers of their own mothers. And I sincerely hope that I will inspire many younger mothers to seek to be like her, for the glory of God and for the welfare of today's children.

Mother was astute, perceptive, and discerning. She displayed good judgment toward everybody and in every circumstance. I was certain that she knew everything about me, no matter how many blocks or miles separated us, and that her decisions and instructions were perfect.

Mother was a loving but strict disciplinarian. She knew what was right and what was wrong for her boys, and she never hesitated to enforce her standards upon us, always for our own short-term and long-term good. She knew that oftentimes the only way to handle the mischief and wrongdoing of her two sons (the older being the greater mischief-maker and wrongdoer) was to use a peach tree switch on our legs or a hairbrush on our bottoms. (She broke a few hairbrushes on mine, which gave me a small measure of happiness during the ordeal.)

Mother had a constant broken heart for those in trouble—the poor and needy, the sick and crippled, the bereaved, the widowed, the orphaned, and for any and all who are the victims of the adversities of the wicked, cursed world in which we live. And we know now as we never knew before, through stories that keep coming to light, of the hours and dollars that she spent caring for others. Love was her main virtue.

Mother worked hard for her husband, for her sons, for others, and most of all, for her Lord. Within weeks after we arrived in Washington in the summer of 1936 she was managing an apartment house on Capitol Hill, furnishing the one- and two-room apartments with used furniture, decorating them, renting them mainly to Capitol Hill workers, and, of course, collecting the rent money—usually $5-$10 weekly in those days. She had to do this while the Crowleys were getting established as "bona fide" ministers and radio broadcasters in Washington. To this day it's hard for me to believe that Mother was only 28 when she owned and managed her own business!

Perhaps if I am still here next year I will add to this brief tribute to my wonderful mother. Some of my readers were privileged to know her. As it says about a "virtuous woman" in the 31st chapter of Proverbs, her reputation is known far and wide—"Her own works praise her in the gates." Can you imagine what gratitude to God Bob and I have that we are her sons?!

Have you put The King's Business Ministries in your will? Would you consider doing so? Your earthly resources will be busy in the business of the King, after you have gone on to be with Him!

"Providence has been pleased to give this one unconnected country to one united people descended from the same ancestors, speaking the same language, professing the same religion, attached to the same principles of government, very similar in their manners and customs." So exulted John Jay in the Federalist Papers, No. 2. Jay would today be charged with a hate crime against diversity.

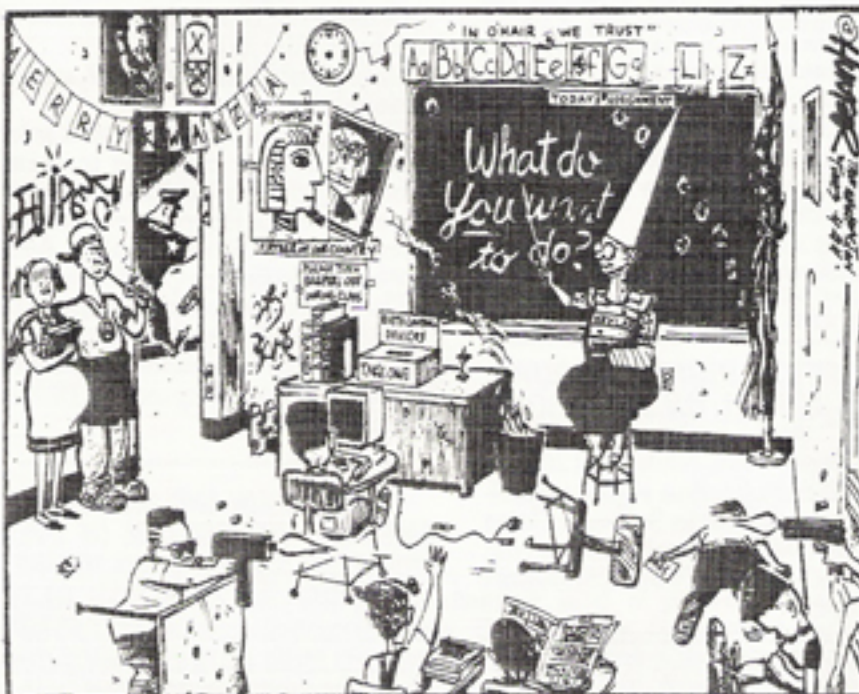

—Pat Buchanan

Editors Note: I have been saying for several years on "The King's Business" radio program that if James Madison, John Jay, and Alexander Hamilton could have known of the tyrannical usurpation of the will of the citizens by the Federal government in this 20th Century, they never would have written their Federalist Papers.

George Washington and Thomas Jefferson gave us the real reason for the Second Amendment:

"A free people ought not only to be armed and disciplined, but they should have sufficient arms and ammunition to maintain a status of independence from any who might attempt to abuse them, which would include their own government."

"The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to keep and bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves from the tyranny of government."
