No. 60 – Summer 2012

By Dale Crowley Jr., first published in Christian News May 28, 2012

The old platitudinous cliché

"MAY THE BEST MAN WIN"

will never again be possible in American presidential elections.

No, our voting majority will never again elect "the best man." America's voting majorities are now "a multitude to do evil." (Exodus 23:2) America's voting majorities are now "they which commit such things" who "not only do the same, but have pleasure [vote for] them that do them." (Romans 1:32).

So while the pleasant-sounding "MAY THE BEST MAN WIN" is an upbeat, cheerful, optimistic sounding expression, it is no longer possible in the election of the president of the United States of America.

But thank God, there will always be the minority who will not join with the "multitude to do evil." (Let us not forget that our Lord asked, "When the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?" Luke 18:8)

It has been hard for most of us to admit that the old saw, "MAY THE BEST MAN WIN", may no longer prevail in majoritarian politics . . . that the pollyannaish belief of our youth – that God-given majoritarian rule would always be best for America – may no longer be true.

PERHAPS 200 YEARS AGO? YES! TODAY? NO!

QUESTIONS ALL PATRIOTIC CHRISTIANS MUST FACE AND ANSWER IN 2012 . . .

1. Should we entrust the welfare of a great nation to anyone who believes the outrageous, fanciful myths of Mormonism?

2. Put another way: Is it possible for a person to guide a nation and its citizens in right paths who has declared his trust in satanic deceptions?

3. Put another way: How can a nation established and populated by Bible believing devout Christians be properly and justly governed by one whose spiritual foundation are 100 percent hostile to those foundations?

Dear Reader,

What follows is a modest attempt to help you answer these important questions. Sources are many, and authoritative. Ungrammatical Mormon writings are not quoted directly, but cleaned up and disclosed accurately and succinctly.

1. GENERALLY – ANTI-CHRISTIANITY

Historical Christianity is wrong, false, an abomination in the sight of God.

They are all wrong . . . all their creeds are abomination. (Joseph Smith)

All the so-called Christian world was groveling in darkness . . . the Christian world are heathens as to the knowledge of the salvation of God . . . a more ignorant people never lived than the so-called Christian world. (Brigham Young)

Christianity . . . a perfect pack of nonsense.

What does the Christian world know about God? Nothing . . . they are fools . . . they know neither God nor the things of God. (John Taylor)

Christians . . . the biggest whoremasters there are on earth. (Heber C. Kimball)

What is the church of the devil in our day? Christians and non-Christians. (Bruce McConkie)

2. DOCTRINE – INSPIRED SCRIPTURE

"We need no more Bible." (The Book of Mormon)

3. DOCTRINE – GOD THE FATHER

God was once a human being.

All human beings, especially men, have the potential to become God.

God had a wife, by whom all human beings came into being.

Adam is our father and our god. (Brigham Young)

4. DOCTRINE – JESUS CHRIST, GOD THE SON

Jesus is the brother of Lucifer (Satan).

Jesus was a man who became God.

5. DOCTRINE – ATONEMENT, SALVATION

Rejects the blood atonement and substitution-

ary atonement. "Utter Nonsense"

There is no salvation without accepting Joseph Smith. Joseph Smith claimed that a heavenly messenger appeared, and said, "This is my beloved son; hear him."

6. DOCTRINE – MISCELLANEOUS

A New Jerusalem will be established in Missouri. Joseph Smith will be crowned King of the Kingdom of God.

All human beings had a previous existence. Mormon men (founders? prophets? elders? leaders? all?) are entitled to have sexual relations and marry any and every woman they desire.

DISCOVERIES AND DISCLOSURES

BY A FORMER MORMON ELDER

*Mormonism is rooted in Luciferianism, Freemasonry, witchcraft, and occultism.

*Mormonism teaches that America will someday be ruled by Mormons, in a religious dictatorship.

*Evangelicals' and conservatives' high regard for Mormon Glenn Beck is disturbing.

WARNING

Satan's takeover of the United States of America through the decades and centuries has been rooted largely in the maxim

THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS

But should the people of a Holy God embrace evil under any circumstance . . . even the "LESSER of two evils"?

What does Exodus 23:2 mean? "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil."

What is its application 3,500 years later?

Could "multitude" equate with, or be similar to "majority"? (Note: Christian people do not like to face such questions these days.)

THE FIRST TWO PAGES OF THIS ISSUE OF CAPITOL HILL VOICE
FEATURE AMERICA'S GRAVEST MORAL, SPIRITUAL, AND RELIGIOUS PERILS

THE ONLY ANSWER TO EVERYONE OF THESE PERILS IS BIBLICAL SALVATION

THAT IS, THOSE WHO ARE GUILTY OF THE SINS
OF UNBELIEF, ACCEPTANCE OF THE LIES OF SATAN,
AND REBELLION AGAINST THE HOLY AND RIGHTEOUS GOD OF THE BIBLE, NEED ONLY TO CONFESS AND FORSAKE THEIR SIN,
ACCEPT JESUS CHRIST – THE CRUCIFIED, RISEN SON OF GOD –
AS THEIR LORD AND SAVIOUR, AND BE BORN AGAIN

THAT WILL BRING US ONE STEP CLOSER TO GOD'S RENEWED FAVOR AND BLESSING UPON US

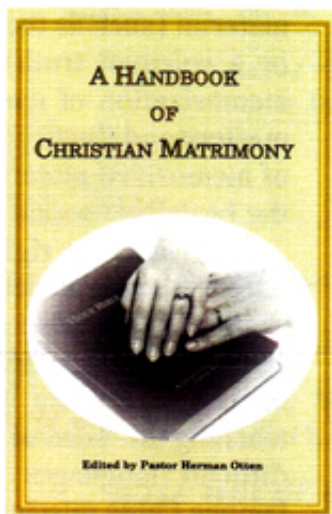

AN AUTHORITATIVE BIBLICAL LOOK ON COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE

By Dale Crowley Jr.

God has blessed me with friendship with three of the most remarkable men of God of the twentieth century: James Graham (from 1952), A. W. Tozer (from 1955), and Herman Otten (from 1985). All three are ordained ministers of the Gospel, and outstanding scholars, writers, editors and publishers. Only Herman Otten is still with us.

While pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Missouri, Pastor Otten has edited and published near 2,500 issues of the weekly newspaper, Christian News. We had the wonderful privilege of welcoming and entertaining the distinctive Otten family in our home in Arlington, Virginia some twenty years ago.

So I have learned through the years that when Pastor Herman Otten says something, or writes something, or edits and publishes something, we'd better pay attention. He is now the editor of A Handbook of Christian

Matrimony, and we'd all better pay attention to these writings in these days of assault against courtship, marriage, and the family.

Mary Crowley's View From Capitol Hill

Reprinted from Capitol Hill Voice, 2001

"Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men."

1 Thessalonians 5:14-15

I like the way Paul tells the church in Thessalonica to warn the brethren of the evil that is surrounding them. He is telling us in this generation to see the evil that is surrounding us. We are to warn those that are unruly. Webster says: "unruly" means not submissive to the rules . . . someone that is disobedient, unmanageable, or uncontrollable.

The world offers us so many temptations. It is hard to watch television without viewing some sexual encounter. We see women dressed in tight clothes revealing their body form to get the attention of the viewers or to sell some item in the advertisement. It seems that every magazine page is filled with the same thing.

We go out in the street or in the mall and what do we see? Girls, teenagers, women all dressed in tight clothes revealing every part of their body. The men stand by drooling . . . enjoying and lusting. Why does a woman want attention so badly that she would dress like a whore. Women certainly are asking for problems.

I think that it is wrong for Christians to dress like the world. The fashion designers, mostly men, want women to dress sexy. Have you noticed men's fashions? Their clothes are neat and dressy. The colors are matching. But not the women! The clothes hang unevenly, colors don't match and they look sloppy or are so tight and revealing that it would be hard to breathe.

Why do we let designers set the fashion for our children and us? Maybe someone who is reading this article will feel led to start a more modest design of clothing for Christian girls and women. I sure would be buying those clothes.

The internet is even worse than television. Pornographic material is flooding the internet, and our children in public school, at home, and in public libraries can see this trash and may be molested or exploited by the pedophiles.

Now that I have warned you it is your responsibility to warn others. So go to it. Let us follow that which is good and righteous.

SALVATION TRUTH

Jesus: "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Martha: "I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world." John 11:25-27

From a Missionary Linguist To Rosetta Stone

FRAUD OR IGNORANCE?

"... like I learned my first language..." If asserting that one can learn a second language like [as] he learned his first language is not deliberate fraud, then it is gross ignorance.

Rosetta Stone claims to guide language learners into fluency of the language they are learning just as they learned their first language.

Such a thing is impossible. First, our entire selves... all of us... change as the days, weeks, months, and years go by. Our ever-changing brains simply will not allow us to acquire a new (second, third, fourth or what have you) language as we learned our first language.

Language learning begins in the womb, as we hear those outside talk, and as we get familiar with the sounds, cadences, consonants, vowels, patterns and structures of our native language.

After birth we assimilate our native language effortlessly, even with all its complexities, intricacies, and monumental difficulties. It is indeed miraculous. But the process always takes four, five, six, or seven years to really master... and even then we continue to make mistakes.

But as the years go by our neurological language learning capacity changes. So now, in order to learn a second, third, or fourth language we must resort to painstaking cognitive labor, which often involves drills, memorization, translation, etc.

A Bible translator, and one of the greatest linguists of all time, Dr. Eugene Nida, even went so far... in his book written especially for missionaries... How to Learn a Foreign Language... to recommend the rote memorization of second language material (such as the Gospel message, a Bible story, or a spiritual truth). Dr. Nida insisted that rote memorization of narrative material would lead to mastery and fluency... that the frequent recitation of memorized material would create "pathways" in the brain that would never be lost.

Dr. Nida was right. How do I know? Why do I dare challenge Rosetta Stone? How am I so sure?

Simply because as a missionary I tried Dr. Nida's strategy, and it worked. After only ten months in Japan I was preaching the Gospel and teaching the Word of God in one of the world's most difficult languages without an interpreter. (A famous China missionary said, "Crowley has the gift of tongues.") Contrary to Rosetta Stone's dictum, my adult brain benefited from drills, translation, and memorization.

So, many years later, with a Master of Science degree in Applied Linguistics (Georgetown University, 1965) I can say with authority that Rosetta Stone's dictum is either knowingly fraudulent, or unknowingly ignorant.
