Two Great Brothers Called Home to Heaven in January and February

In Loving Memory of

Pastor Robert Daniel Crowley

April 17, 1930
February 13, 2011

His message title contained three of the first words I learned in Spanish, and never forgot: "El Camino Real," in English, "The Royal Road." (I had already learned many Spanish words during our 1930s years in Texas and Arkansas.)

"The Royal Road" that Dr. White spoke of was a life called of God, and committed to the ministry of His word to lost sinners and to the church, the body of Christ.

Bob and I walked the aisle that night, indicating that we believed God had called us to serve Him on "El Camino Real."

In the audience, counselor Dave Cole, also committed to ministry on "The Royal Road," rejoiced with us that night. The three of us went on to minister in Washington, Maryland, Virginia, Hawaii, and Japan. And we stayed close together through thick

It was the summer of 1943 at Camp Wabanna that my brother Bob and I were campers assigned to the cabin (with about six others) where Dave Cole was the counselor in charge.

I was 15, Bob was 13, and Mr. Cole was 20.

We found counselor Cole to be a fun-loving, but stern, no-nonsense example for us teenagers to respect, obey, and follow.

The preacher at the evening service on the last night of camp was Dr. K. Owen White, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church (now Capitol Hill Baptist Church).

and thin, in many different ways, on many different occasions for over sixty years, until God called Bob and Dave home to heaven this year.

I am indebted by my brother Dave, as youth pastor of the Wisconsin Avenue Baptist Church in the 1940s for helping prepare my future wife, Mary Henderson, for the work she was to do in Japan.

Many wonderful things were said about Bob and Dave at their funeral services. I will close this brief "eulogy" with the scripture I believe motivated the three of us in our lives as pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and teachers, II Timothy 2:2: "And the things that you have heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." (Dave's sister Ann and brother-in-law Joe Richters served with us in Japan.)

"THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS"

The words of our Lord in Matthew 12:40

or

ONE DAY AND TWO NIGHTS

Roman Catholic Tradition

The New Testament is absolutely clear that the crucifixion and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ was on Wednesday, not Friday.

by Dale Crowley Jr.

FOUR SCRIPTURES AND FOUR QUESTIONS . . .

Scripture Number One

"For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." Matthew 12:40

Question Number One

Why don't pastors and teachers, and radio and television preachers expound on, or even quote Matthew 12:40?

Scripture Number Two

*"Then Jesus six days before the Passover [Nisan 15] came to Bethany [Nisan 9]." John 12:1
"In the end of the sabbath [Nisan 17], as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week . . . [Nisan 18]" Matthew 28:1*

Question Number Two

"Why don't pastors and teachers, and radio and television preachers examine and explain the New Testament chronology before and after Passover that year (Passover that year was Thursday Nisan 15) from Nisan 9 (Bethany) to Nisan 18 (the first day of the week, "Sunday").

LOGICAL, SENSIBLE OBSERVATION . . .

If Passover that year was Saturday Nisan 17, as Roman Catholic tradition maintains, that would put Jesus in Bethany on Sunday Nisan 10 and Monday Nisan 11, which is preposterous, because those were the days of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem and the cleansing of the temple.

No, our Lord was in Bethany on Friday Nisan 8, and Passover was six days later, Thursday, on Nisan 15, as we have learned from John 12:1. The crucifixion and burial were on Wednesday Nisan 14, the Day of Preparation, as John 12:1 makes clear.

Scripture Number Three

"Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified." Matthew 26:2) (These words spoken by our Lord immediately after the Olivet Discourse, Tuesday afternoon, Nisan 13. This "two days" statement puts the Passover on Thursday Nisan 15. (Mark 14:1 is a parallel scripture.)

To understand the chronology of Passover and the seven days Feast of Unleavened Bread, study Exodus 12 and Leviticus 23.)

Question Number Three

If Matthew 26:2 and Mark 14:1 are accurate, Roman Catholic tradition leaves us with two silent days, a 48-hour gap between Matthew 26:56 and Matthew 26:57 and between Mark 14:42 and

LAWLESS MAJORITARIAN DEMOCRACY LEADS TO SLAVERY

by Dale Crowley Jr.

When I was a boy I heard preachers say many times, "The majority is usually wrong."

And I've even seen godless majorities in Baptist churches vote for . . . and prevail . . . measures contrary to the will of God. (Baptists boast of their majoritarian conduct of church business.)

Furthermore, lawlessness enslaves, whether it comes from a lawless majority, or a lawless dictator. (My good friend, the late Joe Sobran, liked to comment that the best kind of government possible was totalitarian rule by good, righteous, always 100 percent correct kings. Under such rulers nothing would ever go wrong, except, of course, among evil rebellious citizens.)

Freedom without Law?

Some think that if they could just be free of all rules, regulations, and laws, they would be free at last.

Such is not the case.

Rule-lessness, regulation-lessness, and lawlessness assure slavery. Without rules, regulations, and laws, man very quickly enslaves both himself, and all others whom he can enslave.

One of the first things that surprised us when we landed in Japan in 1952 to serve as missionaries of the Gospel of Christ, was to hear young people say, "Now we have the MacArthur Constitution. Now we are free to do what we want to do."

I tried my best to understand and analyze that presumption.

The Meiji Constitution (late 1800s) declared the emperor to be divine. That declaration, in a constitution, is itself lawlessness, and it led to enslavement and atrocities of the worst kind – Pearl Harbor, war, Bataan, Hiroshima, Nagasaki, and many other unspeakable tragedies. (Actually, "emperor" is a bad translation of the Japanese word "Tennoheika." The real meaning of "Tennoheika" is "heaven's majesty come down to earth," in itself blasphemy and lawlessness.)

The "MacArthur Constitution," though it did not abolish the Tennoheika system of emperor worship (it should have), guaranteed the Japanese people liberties and freedoms that they did not have before the war.

To return to our theme, "Lawlessness and Government," inasmuch as the "MacArthur Constitution" embodied, to a certain extent, the law of the God of the Bible, genuine liberty has prevailed in Japan for many years.

"Liberty in Law"

One of the most profound statements of truth in all political and patriotic literature is that by Katherine Lee Bates in "America the Beautiful": Confirm thy soul in self-control: Thy liberty in law.

When Katherine Lee Bates was inspired to write that verse of "America the Beautiful," she knew that America would be free, and America would enjoy liberty, only under the law of the God of the Bible.

One simple but vivid example of this profound truth is abortion. Man has said "lawful" to what God has declared unlawful. Consequently millions of girls and women have become slaves to lustful men, fornication, and ultimately murderers of millions of unborn human beings.

Only God's law will bestow freedom and liberty . . . not Marx's law, not Mohammed's law, not Buddha's law . . . only God of the Bible's law. Why? Because man's laws are not 100 percent perfect.

Our Christian Founders, and the Christian jurists of England, like John Locke, whom the Founders quoted often, knew this. The laws of the God of the Bible are written in the hearts of all men of all nations (Romans 1:18-20 and 2:15), so that to some extent their written laws reflect the law of God written in their hearts.

But today's patriots, like Hannity, love to talk about "freedom and liberty," but they never mention man's responsibility before the law of the God of the Bible. They need to learn a lesson from Katherine Lee Bates, "liberty in law." The United States of America has become a lawless nation, and our liberties are disappearing.

DEMOCRACY IN THE BIBLE

AND

LAWLESS DEMOCRACY FOR THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD

Now let's get right to the heart of the matter.

We've got no business trying to impose our lawless democracy upon the nations of the world, usually at gunpoint, wasting precious lives and needed money on people who know nothing of "liberty in law."

Remember the misguided Bushes, who wanted to build a "New World Order," giving "freedom and democracy" to the poor oppressed people of the Middle East, especially Iraq and Afghanistan, people who know nothing of our Bible-based struggle for "liberty in law."

We've got no business running half way around the world telling nations that have not experienced our struggle for "liberty in law" how to behave, sacrificing our children and wealth to stop lawless enslaved people from killing each other, sacrificing trillions of dollars to destroy cities, when our cities and their inhabitants are suffering financially.

What hypocrisy. What presumption. What arrogance. Our leaders think the people of the world want to replace their brand of lawlessness with our brand of lawless democracy . . . legalized sodomy, abortion, divorce, out-of-control families, and all the rest!

People who have discarded the law of God, including ourselves, are entitled to nothing more than slavery.

Democracy is not the answer. The majority are usually wrong. Yes, we have proved the accuracy of the words of those preachers of times gone by over and over again.

Only once in the Bible, that I know of, did people vote to decide an issue, the majority prevailing.

Democracy, the will of the majority, is as often wrong as it is right. Israel, our favorite biblical metaphor, was not a democracy. They once begged for a king, after being governed by judges. Only when godly men and women ruled did Israel succeed and prosper.

Today's crooked, lying, thieving politicians love democracy. They know that a lawless majority will give them power and money. They get paid handsomely to impose regulations and taxes on business, that force businesses to send their factories and jobs overseas. And then they whine about falling tax revenues, and tax the rest of us to make up the difference. And they, like G. Dubya Bush, refuse to close borders and veto bad legislation.

I saw a bumper sticker on Capitol Hill a few years back that said it all:

POLITICIANS, LIKE DIAPERS,
NEED TO BE CHANGED FREQUENTLY
OFTEN FOR THE SAME REASON

Yes, lawless majoritarian democracy has made it possible for politicians to tax and spend, loot what little we have left, and pay themselves double of what those who pay their salaries earn.

They love war. They love to see our children killed, they love to shoot off rockets that cost $1,000,000 each. They love to protect the lawless around the world from killing each other. Then they love to force us to pay the bill for it all.

This is where lawless majoritarian democracy has brought us in just a little over 200 years.

The great historian Gibbon (1737-1794) described what is happening to America in this way:

We have gone

“From Bondage to Spiritual Faith
From Spiritual Faith to Great Courage
From Courage to Liberty
From Liberty to Abundance
From Abundance to Selfishness
From Selfishness to Complacency
From Complacency to Apathy
From Apathy to Dependency
From Dependency
Back Again into Bondage”

Dear reader, may I ask, “Where is America now on Mr. Gibbon’s timetable?”

FROM DEMOCRACY TO DICTATORSHIP

Another historian and scholar, an American, Alexander Fraser Tytler, put it this way 250 years ago, when America was in its infancy:

“A Democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover they can vote themselves largess out of the public treasury. From that moment on the [lawless] majority always votes for the candidate promising the most benefits from the public treasury, with the result that democracy always collapses over a loose fiscal policy, always to be followed by a dictatorship.”

ARE WE NOW THE LAWLESS MAJORITY?

Is it possible that an accurate application and/or fulfillment of the foregoing two pages could be the following?:

THE ELECTION OF BARAK HUSSEIN OBAMA TO THE PRESIDENCY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TELLS US MORE ABOUT THE MAJORITY IN AMERICA THAN ABOUT BARAK HUSSEIN OBAMA.

(See the final thought to this article on Page 6)

Mark 14:43, and between Luke 22:46 and Luke 22:47, and between John 17:26 and John 18:1. So is A. T. Robertson (and multitudes of Bible "scholars") correct in labeling those 48 hours "the two silent days"? Can we really accept the notion that the inspired scriptural account advances and supports an abrupt 48-hour silence during the most momentous week in world history?

Scripture Number Four

I have saved the best for the last: John 19:31. This scripture holds the key to both the error and the truth of the day and date of the crucifixion and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ.

"The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation [Nisan 14], that the bodies should not remain on the cross the sabbath day (for that sabbath day was an high day) [Passover Nisan 15], besought Pilate . . ." John 19:31

Clearly and simply:

The betrayal, trials, crucifixion, and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ occurred on Wednesday Nisan 14, the Old Testament Day of Preparation before the Passover Sabbath, Thursday Nisan 15 that year. (Passover was also the Second Day of Unleavened Bread. The day after Passover, Nisan 16, the Third Day of Unleavened Bread was also a Sabbath day. See Exodus 12 and Leviticus 23.)

Question Number Four

How can today's Bible-believing pastors, teachers, radio and television preachers reject biblical chronology, refuse to expound the truth of the chronology of the Passion Week, concede to Roman Catholic "Good Friday" tradition, and ignore the King James Version gross mistranslation of Acts 12:4 pascha – the pagan deity Easter?

For a more thorough explanation of these (and other) truths, study

Dale Crowley Jr.'s book

ON THE WRONG SIDE OF JUST ABOUT EVERYTHING, BUT RIGHT ABOUT IT ALL

Dear Reader,

Will you consider and pray about a donation to these radio broadcast, publication, and foreign missions ministries? We are in real need of help, and now must be praying daily about when the Lord wants us to shut down The King's Business ministries.

You see, you may not realize it, but for a minister these days to dare criticize the Evangelicals' darling Scofield, to question the Catholic's Good Friday, to disprove of the pagan word Easter, or, above all, to find fault with (biblical fault!) God's and America's most esteemed chosen rebels, Israel, is to make that minister unpopular, and unworthy of support, and even to plunge him into disrepute. I've been there, "done that" for many years.

So you few who are grateful to God that someone has the spiritual insight and courage to speak the truth, please be a partner with me now with a generous cash donation, and/or include The King's Business in your will or trust. I promise you we will be faithful all the way. Please meditate on these two scriptures for a few moments:

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine." II Timothy 4:3

"Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth." Galatians 4:16

SALVATION PROMISES FROM ROMANS CHAPTER TEN

If you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

For with the heart man believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Romans 10:9, 10, 13 and 17

One thing we, a majoritarian democracy, are really good at, is getting rid of a regime we don't like, paving the way for an even worse regime to take power . . . or getting rid of a bunch of lawless religious leaders, only to pave the way for an even worse gang of even worse lawless religious leaders . . . then sending the bill for such lawless foolishness to us poor taxpayers (who have tried to obey the law all their lives).

Does a just God see these injustices? Yes He does. Will He recompense lawlessness and injustice appropriately? Yes He will.

But for now we need to return to the advice of George Washington in his farewell address. He advised neither favoritism nor animosity toward any nation.

What did he mean? One thing this certainly means is, "Let the people of the nations of the world solve their own problems; we will mind our own business."

Last Major Accomplishment
A Book . . .
The Miracle of Summit Lake
Christian Camp

Bob's last request of me was that I oversee the publication of the book he'd been working on for two years.

I promised him I would. And I have already spent many hours getting it ready to take to the printer. It should be off the press and in our hands by the end of the year.

A close friend and partner, who has seen the Summit Lake miracle unfold for many years – Frank Palumbo of Vienna, Virginia – stepped forward with his assurance to underwrite 1,000 copies of the book.

You can get your copy, and copies for your friends and Summit Lake alumni, by contacting Mr. Palumbo or me.

The title of the book will include the name of the most beloved of all the Summit Lake horses, Sea Chanty, one of God's many gifts to the successful ministry of Summit Lake Christian camp.

A MUST READ – THE REAL LINCOLN

by Thomas J. DiLorenzo
Forward by Walter Williams

When I was a boy, growing up in Arkansas over 75 years ago (Google "Dale Crowley Jonesboro Arkansas 1932-1936") I heard many old folks telling stories about the "Civil War."

When we moved to Washington in 1936 I learned how wonderful it was that Lincoln "preserved the union," and found that Lincoln's birthday, February 12, was a holiday. We school kids were always happy for our "field trips" to the brand new Lincoln Memorial!

Please permit me just one simple, truthful observation and comment: It was not a civil war, which is a war between people of the same nation. It was a war between two nations – the United States of America, and the Confederate States of America.

- There's no backup as of yet. (Is "yet" now a noun?)
- This storm will bring issues. (No more "problems.")
- They literally turned on a dime. Really?!
- It literally went up in smoke. Really?!
- I literally made money at my kitchen table. Really?!
- In terms of "in terms of," "in terms of" is the most useless, ridiculous three words in English.
- YMCA is not, and never will be an acronym. An acronym must someday become a word, or be a word already, such as RADAR, POTUS (President of the United States), and ARM (adjustable rate mortgage).

What is frightening is that very audible and visible educationally impoverished media stars are all too often also role models and opinion makers.
